2012 IBS SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENT

04/12/2015

To: Supporters of the Ida Ballard Simon (IBS) Memorial Scholarship Fund

I am Ashanti Pollard and I am a junior at Lincoln University (LU) of Missouri. Since May of 2012, me and my family lives has changed for the better. I was awarded the IBS Memorial Scholarship that changed my whole plans of where I was going to further my education and ever since then I been nothing but grateful. It made our lives so much easier and my mom didn't have to worry anymore about how my college tuition was going to get paid. I am happy to be a recipient of the IBS scholarship because it has afforded me the opportunity to attend LU and meet some amazing people.

I wouldn't change a thing about where I chose to attend college. Actually, I feel that LU chose me because this experience is molding me into a better, more confident and optimistic young lady. Also, I have made my mom very proud as well as other family members that support me as well. So, I want to thank all Ida Ballard Simon Scholarship Fund supporters; you all have made a big impact on my life!

Thank You,

Ashante Pollard

2014 IBS SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENT

"The Ida Ballard Simon Scholarship – What It Means to Me!"

4-13-15

During my senior year in high school, I always had this fixed mind set of where I would be and what I would be doing in college, and honestly Lincoln University was not on the spectrum. As the end of my senior year began to get closer, I realized that my dream wasn't going to happen.

I was honestly lost and had no clue what I was going to do.

I was down and out and felt like I had let people down.

Then this wonderful "Ida Ballard Simon Scholarship" came around and I had the opportunity to apply for it.

God blessed me with the great privilege of receiving the scholarship, and more importantly keeping my parents from having to spend money. I would just like to say THANK YOU for selecting me to be a representative of not only the scholarship, but of your family as well.

It is a great honor of mine, and I strive to do my best because of the chance that I've received. Every day that I don't feel like going to class, or I'm simply having a bad day, I just think about all of the people who support me and that I have to make you all proud.

This Scholarship means so much to me and I will keep my GPA up and keep striving for the best. I'd just like to say, "Thank you again" to all of those who donate or have something to do with the funding of my education. You are GREATLY appreciated and I will make you proud.

Sincerely,

Addison Matthew Tucker

Too often the educational value of doing well what is done, however little, is overlooked. One thing well done prepares the mind to do the next thing better. Not how much, but how well, should be the motto. One problem thoroughly understood is of more value than a score poorly mastered.

One Night (April 21, 2015)

The New York Times bestselling author checks in to the hotel of readers' dreams for an ardent romantic adventure that lasts just One Night.

For one night, a couple checks in to an upscale hotel. The pair seem unlikely companions, from opposing strata of society, but their attraction is palpable to all who observe them—or overhear their cries of passion. In the course of twelve hours, con games, erotic interludes, jealousy, violence, and murder swirl around them. Will they part ways in bliss, in sorrow, or in death?

Filled with all the hallmarks of an Eric Jerome Dickey bestseller—erotic situations, edge-of-your-seat twists and turns, and fun, believable relationships—One Night will delight Dickey's existing fans and lure countless new ones.

A Wanted Woman (April 15, 2014)

The twenty-first novel from "New York Times "bestselling author Eric Jerome Dickey, a steamy thriller set in tropical Barbados.

She is a woman of a thousand faces, an assassin who could be anyone, anywhere.

The Trinidad contract was supposed to be simple: to make a living man become a dead man. When the job goes bad under the watchful eye of a bank security camera, there is nowhere for agent MX-401, known as Reaper, to hide from the fearsome local warlords, the Laventille Killers.

Her employers, the Barbarians, send her to Barbados, the next island over, barely two hundred miles away, with the LK's in hot pursuit of the woman who took many of their own. With the scant protection of a dank safe house, no passport, and no access to funds, an island paradise becomes her prison.

While she trawls for low-profile assignments to keep her skills sharp and a few dollars in her pocket, Reaper discovers that family ties run deep, on both sides of the fight. Will the woman everyone wants, who has lived countless lives in the service of others, finally discover who she really is?

In A Wanted Woman, New York Times bestselling author Eric Jerome Dickey delivers an adrenaline-pumping rush of a read.

She was the innovator of the Presidential Gala Concept at Lincoln University. If you experienced Ida, you experienced a classy, sassy, sexy, confident, beautiful Black woman who had an OPINION and EXPRESSED it even if it made a few uncomfortable!

Michelle Obama is a prototype of Ida!! A former Miss Lincoln University, A former Miss Carver High, A former Corporate Executive, trained in the Seminary, well travelled, and a Majorette at LU. She LOVED MEMPHIS, CARVER HIGH and LINCOLN UNIVERSITY. Ida came to LU with NO MONEY and graduated with honors. She passionately wanted to GIVE BACK TO LINCOLN and spoke of her experiences at LU as some of the most wonderful times of her life!! She returned to Lincoln as the Vice President of Advancement. Ida was posthumously Inducted into The Lincoln University Hall of Fame!!!

I tell you ALL this because she was MY AND OUR FRIEND and I want YOU to SUPPORT this Memorial Scholarship EVENT and FUND with your donation. Her family knew she LOVED LINCOLN. Let's let her family KNOW that we LOVED HER!!! Ella Ballard, one of her sisters, was also a graduate of LU! Send your donation in today. It's NOT too late to send in a donation large or small!!
